CELEBRATION OF THE HOLY GHOST AT KILAUEA

(Special to the Garden Island)

KILAUEA, June 12.—The annual celebration of the feast of the Holy Ghost was celebrated here last Saturday night and Sunday. An elaborate and toothsome luncheon followed by a dance figured among the prominent features of the evening, the former being relished by scores of happy, hungry people, while the latter afforded delight for those fond of tripping the light fantastic.

The feast and dance was held at the residence of August Sousa, where a spacious land had been especially prepared for the occasion. The Lihue band discoursed beautiful music during the feast as well as for the dance.

On Sunday morning the members congregated at the church where high mass was celebrated by Father John. A procession headed by the band marched through the grounds which were decorated with beautiful arches from the church to within a short distance of the front gate, continuing along each side of the yard, being made of wire and all festooned with tissue paper flowers. The procession, from the church, marched through these arches, the band played appropriate airs, and the whole procession halted at intervals for song and prayer.

Father John marched under a white canopy which was carried by four men. The ceremony was pretty and very impressive.

In the afternoon, an auction sale of the offerings to the church took place. Among the numerous offerings was a beautiful Hawaiian quilt the gift of Mrs. Hannah Chong, which brought $12.00.

On Sunday morning, Director Sousa assembled his boys at the residence of Manager Myers and gave him and his guests a delightful serenade which was most heartily appreciated.

MUCH ANXIETY IN KOLOA

(Special to the Garden Island)

KOLOA, June 13.—Considerable excitement prevailed here Saturday over the report that a ship was expected here during the afternoon for the purpose of conveying Philippine laborers to Alaska.

The Philippines came struggling in from all directions during the day with every indication of being prepared to make a get-away.

The plantation management knew nothing of the affair and while no definite information could be obtained, it was generally believed that a certain white man had much to do with arranging transportation. Disappointment was depicted on the feature of the little brown brother as he bent his steps homeward next day. Many of them lingered on the Koloa beach until Monday still hoping to see their ship come in. There is some restlessness and much mystery still in evidence but the local police have been advised by Sheriff Rice to notify him of any observance of renewed activity upon the part of the would-be canners.

SPRINTERS AND RUNNERS ARE ALL BUSY

Kauai athletes are all in hard training now for the big field-day, and reports from the different districts are beginning to make things look interesting.

There is considerable rivalry between the runners, jumpers, and weight throwers of Kauai, and although the men in Lihue District, where the field-day will be held, are confident that there are not many outside athletes who will be able to carry away the prizes, still the reports show that there are some good men in the outside districts who are training, some of them men who have won distinction at Kamehameha or on foreign fields, and Captain Puno of the Lihue baseball team, who is our best hurdler, and his team mates, will have to look to their laurels when the time comes.

The police department has entered a team for the tug-of-war which looks to be a likely winner, but some of the heavy-weight aggregations not connected with the police will give them the time of their lives on the Fourth in the struggle for the big silver cup presented by Mr. A. S. Wilcox.

Everybody landed and every conveyance possible, was pressed into service by those desirous of making the most of their stay among our beautiful scenery. Ideal weather prevailed and a happier crowd has not been seen here in many a day.
